“He had a longing for immortality and undying fame ... He also called the month of April Neroneus and was minded to name Rome Neropolis. ... Yet there were some who for a long time decorated his tomb with spring and summer flowers ... as if he were still alive and would shortly return and deal destruction to his enemies.”

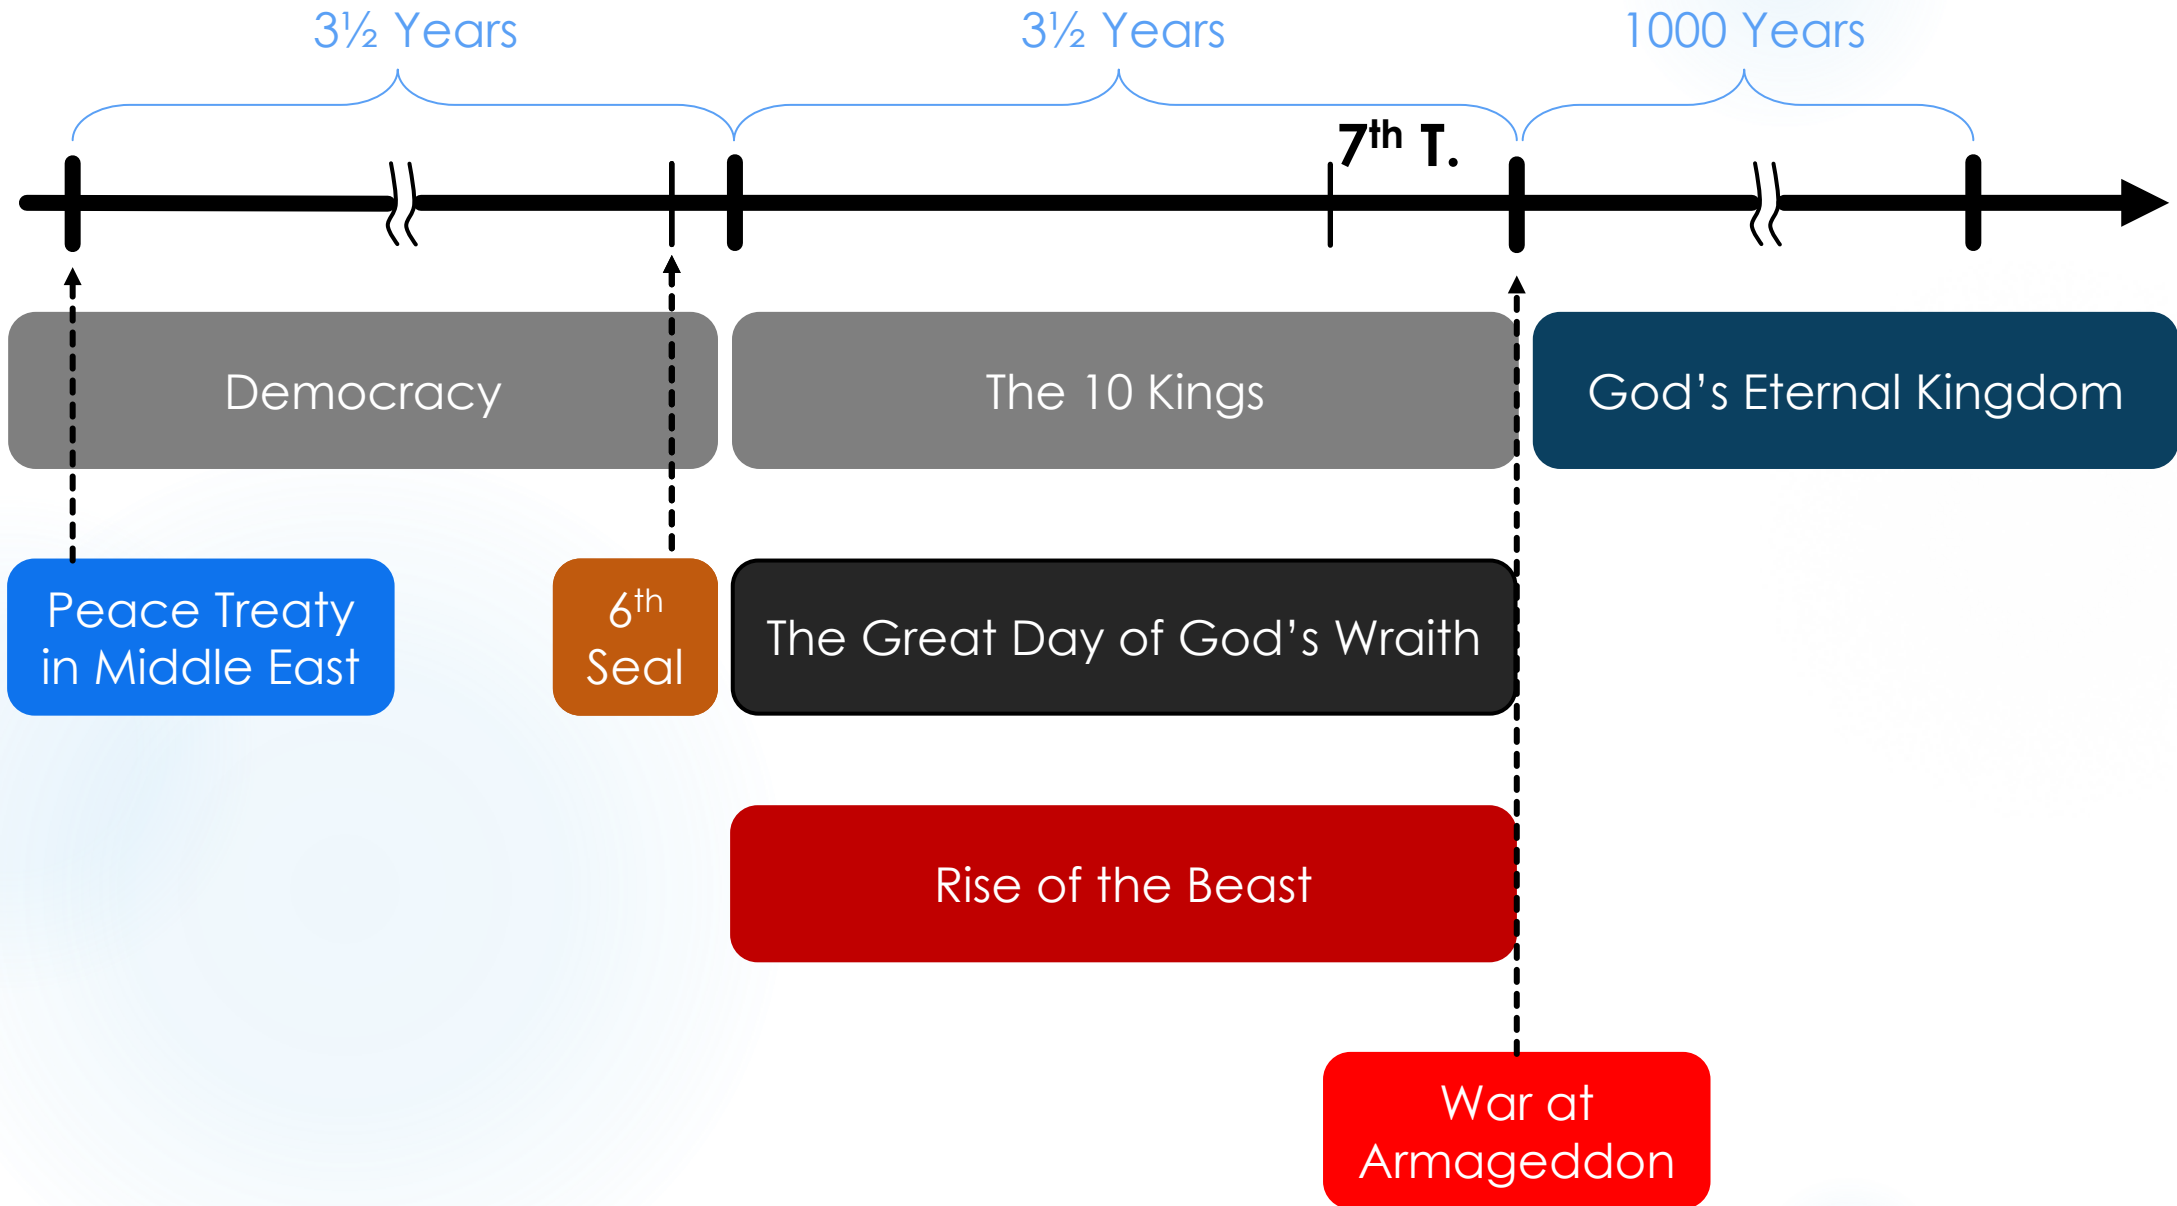

(Suetonius, The Lives of the Caesars)

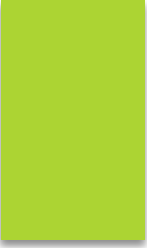

- ▶ Rev. 17:14; 19:11-21
- ▶ The beast and his armies gather to make war with the Lamb

For when they say, “Peace and safety!” then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober.
