Headlines of the UAE-based The National and Gulf News newspapers reflect the agreement between the UAE and Israel to normalize relations, in Dubai on Aug. 14. GIUSEPPE CACACE/AFP VIA GETTY IMAGES

Bahrain to allow flights between Israel and UAE to cross its airspace

The decision came at the request of the UAE following a historic agreement last month between Abu Dhabi and Israel to normalize ties.

In August, Israel's intelligence minister said Bahrain and Oman could be the next Gulf countries to follow the United Arab Emirates in formalizing ties with Israel.

Sudan and Israel say talks underway for deal to normalize ties

'No reason for enmity to continue,' says Khartoum official, predicting pact could be clinched by end of year; Netanyahu says Israel will do everything to make agreement happen

Latest events prove: Saudi Arabia wants to talk peace

The Saudi green light for Israeli overflights is no ordinary thing; it is a clear message that is heard all over the Sunni world, and in Tehran.

Lebanese president hints at possibility of peace talks with Israel

Michel Aoun's comments to France's BFM TV come as Israel and UAE announce normalization of ties

Malawi to open embassy in Jerusalem

Should Malawi make good on its pledge, it would be the first African country to take this step.

Kosovo, Serbia to formalize ties with Israel, open JLM embassy

To date, only the US and Guatemala have embassies in Jerusalem. Most countries have chosen to place their embassies in the Tel Aviv area.

Almost immediately following the destruction of the Holy Temple in the year 70 CE, attempts were made to bring offerings on the Temple Mount, which can be done, even when the Holy Temple is not standing. In the centuries which followed, right up to modern times, great rabbis have attempted to renew the bringing of offerings on the Temple Mount. To do so is not only permissible, it is obligatory! Today, with a green light from the Israeli government, an altar, pre-built by the Temple Institute could be disassembled and reassembled in place on the Temple Mount within hours, and offerings could be brought the same day!

Hebrews 10:19-25

Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, and having a High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful.

And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.
